

BROOKLYN NEWS.

HAD THE BOARDER ARRESTED. WAS IT SET ON FIRE? WILL MEET THE CUT IN GAS.

Accused of Stealing a Valise Which Was Afterwards Found.

If Austin Is a Thief He Does Not Know His Business.

Joseph Austin, thirty-five years old, well dressed and of refined appearance, was remanded in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, to-day on a charge of grand larceny. Detectives Holland and Campbell requested the adjournment, as they expect to have a number of other complainants in the course of a few days.

Although Austin has not been recognized as yet, the detectives believe he is a man with a record. The prisoner asserts that he is innocent, and unless new complaints are brought forward it is probable that he will be discharged.

About a week ago he secured board at 20 Bedford street, in a rooming house, Francis Storm, that he was an electrician employed in the Havemeyer Sugar Refinery. His appearance was much in his favor, and he became quite popular during his stay at the house.

Last night Storm's son was preparing to go to the country and packed a valise with clothing and jewelry, valued at $125.00. After he had finished he went out for a walk. When he returned he found the valise open and the contents missing. As the family had been warned by Detectives Holland and Carroll some days ago that a boarding house thief had been operating in the district, young Storm immediately suspected that Austin had stolen his property.

All night long Mr. Storm sat in the library on the parlor floor with a revolver in his hand, waiting for Austin to attempt to escape. At 6 o'clock this morning he entered the boarder's room, pointed the revolver at Austin, and informed him that he was under arrest. Another member of the family went to the City Hall station, and the two detectives appeared and arrested the man.

After a long search it was discovered in the bathroom.

Two points in the case are that if he was a thief he let a chance of a big haul escape him. Lying on the bureau in the elder Mr. Storm's room was $300 in bills, and in the top drawer was diamond jewelry to the value of $50.00.

GRAVE-DIGGERS' TRIALS.

Calvary Employees Will Appeal to the Archbishop.

LONG ISLAND CITY, June 23.—The grave-diggers and teamsters employed in Calvary Cemetery met last night at Laurel Hill and resolved to unite to devise some means to prevent a prospective reduction in wages.

The men have also a grievance against Timekeeper Ryan. They say he is a regular autocrat; that he fined Patrick O'Brien two hours' pay because he rested a few minutes during a grave dig.

They say Ryan dismissed Hugh Clark, another grave-digger, because he drank a glass of beer with his dinner. John Hader, who was the first foreman in Calvary, it is alleged, was fined one-half day's pay by Ryan because he did not dig a grave for a man named Hart, who is seventy years of age, was offered a pension by the trustees, but said he would not accept it.

It was decided to present the grievances to the Archbishop, who is the head of the Board of Trustees of the Cemetery, and ask him for the removal of Ryan, and to prevent their wages being reduced.

RINCIPAL TO SHOW CAUSE.

Children from His School.

An effort is being made in Brooklyn to secure a judicial opinion as to the legality of the practice of excluding children from the public schools because of their failure to be vaccinated. Proceedings to this end were begun this morning.

Lawyer Horace Graves, representing Mrs. Carrie J. Munroe, a widow, of Decatur street, secured from Justice Bartlett an order restraining early next week compelling Alfred C. Ivins, of Public School No. 30, to show cause why he should not continue Alice and Ethel Munroe as pupils in the school.

It is alleged that they were dismissed June 1 because they failed to present vaccination certificates.

Mr. Graves told Justice Bartlett that it was his wife's case in one way or another a question which has long been a point of dispute.

THEIR CARRIAGE UPSET.

Well-Dressed Man and Woman Fined for Intoxication.

CONEY ISLAND, June 23.—A stylishly dressed woman, twenty-two years old, who said her name was Jean Lancher, and that she lived in Bath Beach, and a well-dressed man, giving the name of Sanford Butler, who also said he lived in Bath Beach, were fined for intoxication this morning.

The couple were driving along Ocean Avenue last night when their buggy upset. The woman was picked up unconscious and the driver, who was taken to the hospital, where he soon revived. Her companion was unhurt. Both were under the influence of liquor.

Miss Lancher is said to be the daughter of a hotel-keeper in Bath Beach. She was large, dark, and had a large roll of hair.

WAS HE THE BURGLAR?

Thomas McKean Charged with a Crime Committed Last February.

Thomas McKean, aged 23 years, of 473 Third Avenue, Brooklyn, for whom the police had been searching since Feb. 12, was held by Justice Tigue in the Butler Street Police Court this morning for examination on a charge of burglary and assault. The complaint against him is of Edward Coughlin, a saloon-keeper, of 97 Columbia street.

On the morning of Feb. 12, it is alleged, the prisoner got into Coughlin's saloon, and was rummaging through the place, when Coughlin and his bartender, Daniel O'Keefe, entered and overpowered him. While O'Keefe went for a policeman, McKean fled, and was arrested on a charge of burglary.

McKean was arrested on Third Avenue yesterday. He denies the charge.

Dislocated His Enemy's Hip.

Peter Reilly, of 307 North Eighth Street, was Held in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg.

William Maher, four years old, died in St. Catherine's Hospital, Williamsburg, this morning. Last evening the child fell out of the baby's window at 238 Ewing street, and was killed.

Trolley Car Burned in the De Kalb Avenue Stables.

The Entire Depot Narrowly Escaped Destruction.

Supt. J. L. Helms, of the De Kalb Avenue Trolley Line, to-day visited Brooklyn Police Headquarters and asked Commissioner Welles to investigate what he believes was a malicious attempt to burn down the Company's stables at De Kalb and Central avenues.

About 3.30 o'clock last night the watchman in the stables discovered fire in car No. 250. He immediately turned in an alarm, but before the engines arrived the entire car was enveloped in flames.

The burning car stood on a track in the middle of the depot with about one hundred other cars around it. It had not been in use for two weeks, and the dry wood made good fuel for the flames.

For a few minutes before the engines arrived it looked as though the depot, which occupies the entire block, would be destroyed.

The firemen managed to keep the flames confined to the car, and there was little or no damage done to the building.

Supt. Helms says he has every reason to believe that the fire was of incendiary origin.

"I have no idea who set the car on fire," said he. "I do not believe it was any of our employees, as we have had no trouble with the men."

I am positive though, that the fire was caused by some malicious person—a firebug."

Capt. Kitzer, Supt. Helms said, was asked last night to begin an investigation into the fire immediately after it was reported. He went to see Commissioner Welles to-day and reported the matter personally.

Supt. Campbell put two Central Office detectives at work on the case.

IT'S ROYAL ARCANUM DAY.

The Brooklyn Councils Will Fity Celebrate.

A Big Parade Along a Decorated Route To-Night.

This is Royal Arcanum day. The members of the Order in Brooklyn have made elaborate preparations for the celebration of the event.

There are about fifty councils of the Order in Brooklyn, with a membership exceeding 15,000. The feature of the celebration will be a big parade.

General William W. Woodford, who is in charge of the person and property of Mrs. Antonette Watson, who is said now to have thoroughly reformed from her alcoholic habits.

Mr. Watson, formerly Mrs. Dr. Page, Mrs. Marshall and Miss Woodworth, has been in two sensational divorce trials and has been before the public at various times during the past few years.

She owns property and stocks valued at several hundred thousand dollars, besides having been the wife of two prominent Brooklynites, one a millionaire.

On Jan. 2, 1882, Mrs. Watson, then Mrs. Marshall, was married to Dr. George Watson, a prominent physician, and a member of the Grand Council of the Order in Brooklyn. The marriage was celebrated at the Hotel Hamilton, and was a very brilliant affair.

Each division will parade in two sections, and the parade will be held on the following order:
